The federal government provides grant funds for students attending colleges, career schools, and universities. Grants, unlike loans, do not have to be repaid.* The major federal student grant programs are briefly described below.

| Federal Pell Grant                                   | • Awarded to undergraduate students who have exceptional financial need and who have not earned a bachelor’s, graduate, or professional degree; in some cases, students enrolled in a postbaccalaureate teacher certification program may receive a Federal Pell Grant
• A student who meets certain requirements might be eligible for a larger Pell Grant if his or her parent died as result of military service in Iraq or Afghanistan or in the line of duty as a public safety officer
• Pell Grant lifetime eligibility is limited to 12 semesters or the equivalent                                                                 | Up to $6,895 for the 2022–23 award year                               |
| Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (FSEOG) | • Awarded to undergraduate students who have exceptional financial need and who have not earned a bachelor’s or graduate degree
• Federal Pell Grant recipients receive priority
• Not all schools participate in this program
• Funds depend on availability at the school; check for the school’s deadline                                                                 | Up to $4,000 a year                                                  |
| Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant | • For undergraduate, postbaccalaureate, or graduate students who are enrolled in programs designed to prepare them to teach in a high-need field at the elementary or secondary school level
• Must agree to serve for a minimum of four years (within eight years of completing or ceasing enrollment in the program for which the student received the grant funds) as a full-time teacher in a high-need field in a school or educational service agency that serves low-income students
• Must attend a participating school and meet certain academic achievement requirements
• Failure to complete the teaching service commitment will result in the grant being converted to a Direct Unsubsidized Loan that must be repaid                                                                 | Up to $3,772 for grants first disbursed on or after Oct. 1, 2022, and before Oct. 1, 2023 |
| Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant                   | • For students whose parent or guardian was a member of the U.S. armed forces and died as a result of performing military service in Iraq or Afghanistan after the events of 9/11
• Must be ineligible for a Pell Grant due to having less financial need than is required to receive Federal Pell Grant funds
• Must have been younger than 24 years old or enrolled at least part-time at a college or career school at the time of the parent’s or guardian’s death                                                                 | Up to $6,501.99 for grants first disbursed on or after Oct. 1, 2022, and before Oct. 1, 2023 |

*Occasionally a student may have to pay back part or all of a grant if, for example, he or she withdraws from school early or doesn’t fulfill the requirements of the TEACH Grant service obligation.
